What we aim to solve

Now more than ever, open access to timely, nonpartisan data and intelligence is critical to the ability to solve increasingly complex social issues. Our field needs a data-driven institution with the scale to support and advance the work of social sector stakeholders as we traverse a period of closing political space, technological upheaval, and global opportunity.

The screenshot shows a web interface for a grantmaker profile. At the top, it says 'Grantmaker' and has links for 'Documents', 'Form 990', and 'Info'. The main header is 'Sample Foundation' with a 'Bronze Transparency Candid.' badge. Below the header is a navigation menu with 'Summary', 'Programs', 'Grants', 'Impact', 'People', and 'Financials'. The 'Grants' section is active, showing sub-tabs for 'Given', 'Received', and 'Application process'. The 'Application process' tab is selected, displaying the 'Grant application guidelines' section. This section includes a sub-header 'Application processes and guidelines', a paragraph about visiting the foundation's website for proposal forms, an 'Application URL' pointing to <https://www.siliconvalleycf.org/scholarships/how-to-apply>, a 'Giving restrictions and limitations' section stating no grants to those without 501(c)(3) status, and an 'Application deadline notes' section stating that deadlines vary and users should check the website for specific dates. A 'Grant application guidelines' badge is also visible in the top right of the content area.

Goals

What is the organization aiming to accomplish?

This provides trusted information, data-driven tools, research, analysis, best practices, and trainings to help the social sector increase its ability to affect change and transform lives. We represent the world's largest repositories of trusted historical and present-day information on nonprofits, foundations, and the capital flows that bind them. We aim to create the future of data, information, and knowledge for the social sector. We will also work to enhance the services we offer to the millions of people who rely on us to help them make the world a better place.

What are the organization's key strategies for making this happen?

For 40 years, this foundation has developed and implemented humane, cost-effective strategies to end mass homelessness in New York City. Our model programs represent solutions that can dramatically reduce the homeless population and prevent homelessness among those most at risk. Our renowned advocacy tirelessly fights for investments in proven, cost-effective housing-based solutions to mass homelessness.
